Immanuel Christian School began a strong tradition of excellence in 1976 when we were established in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area as a ministry of Immanuel Bible Church. We opened our doors with the mission to assist Christian parents in providing a sound education for their children through the integration of faith and learning.

An education that offers God's truth in a Christian environment prepares a child for future achievement and success and, more importantly, for a life of joy and purpose. We challenge our students spiritually, academically, artistically and athletically in a safe and nurturing environment, with exceptionally qualified instructors who are mature followers of Christ. Our curriculum develops critical and creative thinking using project-based learning and robust but developmentally appropriate reading and writing resources. Academic instruction within a biblical context shapes the intellectual and spiritual lives of our students, giving them confidence in their faith and a solid foundation as Christ-centered young people to make a significant impact in a world desperate for meaning and hope.

The faculty and administration of Immanuel Christian School recognize the essential role of community in encouraging students to achieve personal and academic success. Partnering with parents is vital to the mission of our school. When parents, teachers and administrators enjoy a common purpose, children feel supported, and individual confidence and ACHIEVEMENT soar.

ACADEMIC achievement in the top 15 percent on national standardized tests in language arts and mathematics. Our comprehensive curriculum includes language arts, social studies and history, mathematics, science, Spanish, Bible, library, technology, music, art and physical education.

FINE ARTS spans the spectrum of artistic genres to encourage students' expression, appreciation and creativity. Lower School students participate in weekly music and art classes. Upper School students can choose from specialized semester-long electives. Other activities include choir, orchestra and individual instrumental lessons.

ATHLETICS offered include soccer, cross-country, basketball, softball and lacrosse for fifth through eighth grade students. We are a member of the Capital Athletic Conference, a league of area private schools that organizes sports competitions. As an extension of the physical education program, ICS athletes invest themselves in physical fitness, sportsmanship and achieving their personal best in the context of team success on and off the field.

EXTENDED CARE is available before and after school. A variety of after-school clubs are offered, including: chess, LEGO®, rocketry, martial arts, dance and art.

PURPOSEFUL LIVE S

"The PURPOSE of education is to bring us into a fuller knowledge of God, His Word and His world and to increase our understanding of the life He has designed for us. In order to accomplish this, the pursuit of knowledge must always begin with a reverence for the author and revealer of truth. Education is not merely the acquisition of knowledge and skills, but rather a foundation for wisdom and understanding. Neither is education merely a means for making a living, but rather a means for learning how to live. The power and perspective of this kind of education empower our students to achieve great things in the future."

> Stephen E. Danish Head of School

BIBLE instruction is an integral part of each day at ICS. Students and teachers begin each day with morning devotions and gather for chapel every two weeks. Bible instruction is aimed at the hearts of all the students, introducing them to the stories, characters and truths of the Bible, encouraging them to grow in their Christian faith and providing a deep pool of memorized scripture that will be a source of wisdom, strength and comfort throughout life.

CHARACTER-IN-ACTION is an important part of our curriculum and is the "action" element behind our mission. This ongoing community service program facilitates opportunities both locally and globally for our students and staff to be not only hearers of the Word, but also doers of the Word (James 1:22).

BONUS VERSES are part of a school-wide incentive to help students take hold of important life principles that lead to maturity. Each annual Bonus Verse speaks to spiritual formation issues and heart attitudes that should accompany our acts of service.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT is an important part of our ICS community. With our extensive ambassador program, families are provided numerous volunteer opportunities in and out of the classroom.
