HEART

Understand what it means.

This passage tells us that God is our protector, the one who shields us from harm. God is the Glorious One, the source of our glory and honor, giving us a way to hold our head up, to stand tall in the face of great hardship and in the midst of those who oppose God. It assures us that when we cry out to Him for help, He will answer us from His place of holiness and power.

> How did David describe God as a "shield" (Psalm 28:7; 84:9; 119:114)? How does God raise up the humble and abase the mighty (1 Sam. 2:7-8)?

HANDSPut it into action.

We should live with the certainty that God is our protector and encourager. When we are discouraged or afraid, we can turn to Him to restore our confidence, courage and hope. We should call out to Him for help knowing that He will respond, and that He has the power to overcome every circumstance and every enemy.

FIND YOUR COURAGE IN THE LORD.
