Hebrews 11:1-6

Hebrews

- 11:1-2      Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation.
- 11:3        By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.
- 11:4a        By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous,
- 11:4b        God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks.
- 11:5        By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God.
- 11:6        And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7-12

Hebrews

- 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.
- 11:8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.
- 11:9 By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.
- 11:10 For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God.
- 11:11 By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised.
- 11:12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

Romans 12:14-21

Romans

- 12:14-15 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.
- 12: 16 Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight.
- 12:17-18 Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.
- 12:19 Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.”
- 12:20 To the contrary, “if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head.”
- 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Psalm 103:6-13

Psalm

- 103:6-7      The LORD works righteousness
and justice for all who are oppressed.
He made known his ways to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.
- 103:8-9      The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
He will not always chide,
nor will he keep his anger forever.
- 103:10      He does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.
- 103:11      For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
- 103:12      as far as the east is from the west,
so far does he remove our transgressions from us.
- 103:13      As a father shows compassion to his children,
so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.
